VOL. VII. NO. 282. CHICAGO, SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1901. PRICE 5 CENTS

READY AT NEW ORLEANS.

Everything is rounding into good shape at New Orleans for the opening of the races there next Thursday. The Picayune of November 21, has this to say:

"The late arrivals at the Fair grounds have just about got settled down and yesterday everything was running smooth as clockwork. The track was alive with horses during the early morning hours and one would suppose by the number that were being sent along that the meeting was to open up tomorrow or next day. Horsemen pronounce the track to be in much better shape than last year.

"A visit to the Oakland track in the afternoon found J. J. Ogles (Texas Smith) back in his old quarters. Ogles himself, together with his rider—jockey Hope—is at present in Texas on a visit to his farm. This stable is not as strong as it was in former seasons. In fact, the animals are a very ordinary lot, but no doubt important additions will be made before the meeting is very old through the channels of selling races. As usual, Ogles has his horses turned out in the infield, where they are allowed to roam about and take things easy. They are a rough-looking lot, but under this system of training they seem to improve and do better than if they were given the best of attention. The stable numbers eight head. They are: Little Elkin, Zack Phelps, Red Pirate, Helen Paxton, Campus, Gallopin, Hat Mitchell and The Way. When Ogles returns from Texas he will probably bring Governor Sayers and a three-year-old maiden along with him.

"Another owner quartered at Oakland is J. O. Gray, a well-known turfman from the east, who at one time owned that good race mare Alice Farley. He has a small, but select, string. All are two-year-olds. They are: Hopeful, Amagari and Earn. Mr. Gray was the promoter of a series of race meetings given at the Old Saugus track, in Boston, several years ago. It was under his management that the runners were first introduced to the Boston public. These meetings were very successful while Mr. Gray remained at the head of affairs, but as soon as he withdrew they became failures.

"One of the best strings at the Fair Grounds—and one that will cut some figure during the meeting—is the one stabled in the Morris barn under the management of young Robert Walden. The lot numbers fourteen head and among their number are The Hoyden, Dolce Far Niente, Serpent, Si Ah and the three-year-olds Smile, Choice, Fake, Add and Jutama. Doice Far Niente and Serpent are both Hanover colts. The former cost $10,000 and the latter $9,000 when they were sold at auction as yearlings. Five yearlings complete this lot. All are grand-lookers and bred on fashionable lines. Here is a list of them: Bay colt, by Ornament—Lizzie Baker; chestnut filly, by The Friar—Active; bay filly, by Bowling Brook—Lizzie Tabor; chestnut filly, by The Friar—Merry One, and bay filly, by Star Ruby—Tit Tat. The Lizzie Tabor colt is a half brother to that great long-distance performer, The Friar. He is a big yearling and Walden says he can run some. Active, the dam of the filly by The Friar, threw such good class ones as Brisk, Prompt and Prestidigitator. The filly out of Merry One is a half sister to the two-year old Eline Violet, which carried the colors of Richard Croker to victory on so many occasions in England during the season just passed. She is a great, big filly and an attractive looker. Walden thinks quite a bit of her, and if individuality counts for anything she should be a runner. This lot are as fine a looking bunch as ever left the Walden farm at Middlesburg, Md., and they are bound to give a good account of themselves in the early two-year-old races. This stable will have three jockeys—Lyne, Dannigan and Fisher. Lyne made a great record at the Latonia meeting, and the other two lads are said to be good riders.

"The improvements to Colonel Renaud's racing establishment are about completed, and his barn now presents the neatest appearance of any at the Fair grounds. The stable is complete in every detail, and trainer Fessenden is very proud of it.

"The increased added money to the different events this winter means an additional outlay of some $30 000 or $40,000 to the club. This necessarily will compel the management to do away with the free list. Season badges can be purchased, however, at greatly reduced rates, and for the accommodation of the local people the following have been placed on sale at the office of the club, at 735 Gravier street: badges good for six days, $2 50; badges good for thirty days, $12; badges good for the meeting, 100 days, $30."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The New Orleans Picayune of Nov. 22, says:

"The books of the first week's racing at the Fair grounds were distributed among the horsemen yesterday. The conditions have been carefully compiled by Secretary Clark, so as to bring together the best-class horses at the track. On the opening day but one of the races has selling allowances. As a matter of fact, Mr. Clark has eliminated as much as possible these kinds of races. This would tend to show that he expects a better average as regards class than was here last season, or for that matter any other season.

The inaugural Handicap sweepstakes is, of course, the feature race of the opening day. In it are entered fifty of the best sprinters in the west, and from their number the field will be condensed to probably about a dozen starters. Those likely to go to the post are:

J. W. Fuller's ch. h, George Arnold; J. Winkfield, jockey.

J. F. Newman's ch. f, Burnie Bunton; Coburn.
J. Call & Co.'s ch. g, Sevoy; Robertson.
A. R. Cowser's br. g, Mint Sauce; Vandusen.
W. H. Williamson & Co.'s br. g, Tom Kingsley; Harshberger.
M. & G. Foster's b. m, Lennep; Gormley.
J. Arthur's b. c, W. J. Deboe; Otis.
S. L'Hommedieu's ch. g, St. Cuthbert; Rice.
A. H. & D. H. Morris' b. f, The Hoyden; Lyne.
D. P. Rodgers' blk. h, Kentucky; Minder.
W. M. Sloan's b. m, Maggie Davis; Hope.
Bolich & Sweet's ch. g, If You Dare; Hicks.
J. O. Keene's b. g, Little Jack Horner; H. Cochran.

If half of the above number face the flag, an excellent contest should result. This list is not official, but is merely a surmise of those likely to start. Of course, when the weights are announced one will have a better idea of the ones which will be sent after the money.

Mr. J. O. Keene, just in from Memphis, was at the track early yesterday looking over his thoroughbreds. He has six in his stable this winter, among them Braw Lad, an old favorite with local racegoers; Little Jack Horner, Miss Conrad, Siren Song and two yearlings, one a bay filly by Rey del Rey—Marsa, and the other a chestnut colt by Phoenix—Energy. Mr. Keene stopped off at Memphis on his way down from Chicago, and while there visited Montgomery Park, where he looked over the yearlings. He reports that the Memphis track is in better shape than ever. The track superintendent has the heavy rollers at work every day. Montgomery Park shelters more high-class horses this winter than ever before, and Secretary Macfarlan looks for the best meeting next spring in the club's history."

Mere Hill is a brown mare, foaled in England in 1882, and imported to this country by the Messrs. Keene. She is by Macgregor—Miss Penhill, by Newminster, and her son, Unmasked, 4, a brown gelding by Domino, has won brackets this year. In the spring of 1900 Mere Hill produced twins to St. Leonards. These have lived and thrived, and are as big and strong as any yearlings in the stud. They are browns, a colt and a filly, and look alike. They have not yet been tried, but Major Daingerfield is of the opinion that they will, with opportunity, acquit themselves well on the turf. Probably the Messrs. Keene will give them a chance. The Stud Book shows very few instances of twins long surviving birth. It is exceedingly rare for them to reach maturity. Only accident or unlooked for disease will cut short the lives of the Mere Hill twins.—Turf, Field and Farm.

H. Shields, who has been riding in the east this year for Senator McCarren, stopped off in Chicago yesterday on his way to the coast, where he is to ride this winter for J. G. Brown. He had a long talk with Cash Sloan and Piggott before leaving New York. Both were looking in excellent health. They said that they had made plenty of money riding across the water and that they intended to go back, as both had contracts to ride there next season.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jockey George Odom has arrived in Columbus, Ga., from the east, accompanied by his father. Odom will remain in Columbus until next April, when he goes east to begin preliminary work for his new employer, Capt. S. S. Brown, the iron king, who returns to the turf for an active campaign next season. Captain Brown was a power in racing circles twelve or fifteen years ago, when he owned such horses Troubadour, the winner of the Suburban of 1886.

Little Henderson rode a rattling good race on the Oneck Stable's filly Happy in the high-weight selling event at Bennings a few days ago, says an eastern paper. He got away from the barrier in good style and did not rush the filly too much, but allowed her to run her race and did not become rattled when Martin came alongside with Cornwall. Instead, he rode the filly out, and, although she was tiring, she managed to squeeze home by a short head.

It is said an offer of $14,000 was lately made to Mr. Shields for his light-weight jockey, John Martin, but at the last moment something stopped the deal. Had it gone through the clever young Toronto boy would now be on the racing staff of one of Gotham's newest multi-millionaire turfmen. There are two other big owners fishing for the boy, who for his weight is one of the best in the business.

P. F., Chicago. Rafaello does not count as a factor in the race except as to the extent that his being an added starter affected the odds. The backer of Gray Dally should be paid, but at no more than 10 and 4 because of the extent to which the added starters Rafaello and Kalif counted in the percentage.

Albert Simons, who has a strong stable, including Lord Quex and Alpen, at Bennings, will ship from Washington Sunday night for New Orleans. The past three winters Simons raced in California, but he figures that his string will stand a better chance at the Louisiana track this year.

J. F., Chicago. The closing quotation against Alfred Vargrave in the sixth race at Bennings November 22 was 11 to 5 instead of 4 to 5, as it was incorrectly printed.

BOTH MANAGER AND SECRETARY.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 23.—Charles F. Price, already general manager of the California Jockey Club, has been appointed secretary as well. In the latter capacity he succeeds R. B. Milroy, who has been secretary under Thomas H. Williams, Jr., ever since the latter took charge as President at the old Bay District track in 1892. Mr. Milroy has never been actively associated with the racing department, devoting himself to the bookkeeping and financial department almost exclusively and will continue to exercise practically the same functions as bookkeeper and collector, while Mr. Price will control racing details hereafter.

EASTERN YEARLING TRIALS.

Concerning reported trials of some of the yearlings that will make their debut in races for two-year-olds over the New York tracks next year a writer says in Daily America:

"Now the sales are over and the young 'uns are safely in the hands of their purchasers. As a whole those that have been seen look particularly promising. There is not a sick one in any barn, the trials for the most part have been satisfactory, and the outlook for good juvenile racing during the next year could not be better.

"As far as the trials are concerned, however, the lottery is still in evidence. They are not always borne out during the next year's racing by any means, and disappointments are plentiful.

"In this connection I may state that the late Mr. D. D. Withers once expressed the opinion to me that there was not one yearling trial in twenty that was verified in the two-year-old form.

"Among the smart trials that have been brought off, I can call to mind several that have been particularly good, and the watchful turfite can take them for what they are worth.

"At Gravesend the bay colt by Albert—Lady Useful, one of six in P. J. Dwyer's establishment, turned three furlongs over a good track in 36 seconds.

"The bay colt by Hindoo—Bastante, of the same lot, did the distance in .37½.

"The bay colt by Sir Dixon—Miss Annie did the trick in half a second less time.

"Merry Acrobat, a chestnut colt by Handspring—Merry Thought, turned the same ground in .37.

"The chestnut filly by Handspring—War Mantle was tried in the same time.

"The bay colt by Jim Gore—Galatea did a quarter in 24½ seconds. The trial caused him to buck and he has a sore pair of shins.

"C. F. Dwyer's chestnut colt by Ornament—Emma Primrose; bay colt by Halma—Virginia Kenny; bay colt by Tenny—Puffer, and bay colt by Russell—Galine II. covered the three furlongs distance in 37 and 37½ seconds.

The S. S. Brown lot were tried out before they were transferred to Trainer Peter Wimmer. The bay colt by Sir Dixon—Bonnie Blue II., chestnut colt by Sir Dixon—Catalina II., brown colt by Hindoo—Miss Moor, and brown colt by Pirate of Penzance—The Broom, covered three furlongs close to the 37 second mark.

"At Sheepshead Bay Trainer F. Brown of the P. H. McCarren lot, has sent several of his youngsters down the line at smart clips.

"The bay colt by Bassetlaw—Meriden clipped off three furlongs in 36½.

"The bay colt by Dr. MacBride—Carsona and bay colt by Jim Gore covered the route at close to the same speed.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Imp has arrived at her home near Chillicothe, Ohio, and unless "Uncle" Dan Harness changes his mind again has left the track for good and will be mated next spring with some one of the fashionable sires of the day.

Jockey O'Neil, one of the best riders at St. Louis the past season, has contracted with W. B. Jennings for the California season and will take his first mounts next week.

EASTERN YEARLING TRIALS.

"H. K. Vingut's filly by Lord Hartington—Calamity Jane speeded a quarter in 23¼.

"Trainer A. J. Joyner's youngsters, Burgundy, Yaqui, Tioga and others were not asked any severe questions. He is sure of his material and is not a great believer in breakneck yearling trials.

"Trainer W. O. Scully has asked little of his yearlings. He has given up the string of horses that he so successfully managed for L. M. Myers during the season, and now Leonora Loring and others will pass into other hands. Mr. Scully still has four racers in an ample barn on the backstretch at the Bay."

CHAIRMAN YOUNG'S STATEMENT.

Statement by Chairman Lawrence A. Young, of the Western Jockey Club:

"We have made some reinstatements and will probably make more. This will be the policy of the Western Jockey Club to those who apply in good faith and who expect to remain adherents of the Western Jockey Club. We may make some mistakes, but, so far as I am advised, only one man we heretofore reinstated has abused the act of restoration by racing again on tracks not recognized by the club. We do not look for others to do so, but, of course, where it is done there can be no possibility of a second reinstatement. Such act of bad faith will forever bar the party from the Western Jockey Club."

AMENDMENT TO RULE 161.

Rule 161 has been amended to read as follows: Boys who never rode a winner and who have of their own free will and with the consent of their parents or guardians, bound themselves as apprentices to owners or trainers for a term of not less than three years by a written instrument, certified copy of which has been lodged with the Stewards of the Western Jockey Club, shall be permitted to claim a five-pound allowance in all selling races, excepting selling handicaps. They shall be entitled to this allowance for one year after being licensed as apprentices. Allowances under this rule must be claimed at the time of entry, and the owner shall not be permitted to waive such allowance except by consent of the judges.

Went to post at 2:42. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Sir Lewis was lucky, ran a good race, finished strongly and outgamed Quadra at the end. The latter appeared to be a certain winner almost throughout and was under a pull to the last fifty yards, but failed when called on. Maraschino caught Arigato and Victoria S. tiring and won third money in the last stride. The latter was evidently short. Dulcimer ran badly.

Greyfeld ran only a fair race and is evidently not within twenty pounds of his best form. Bangor, at the weights and distance and in the unfavorable going ran remarkably well. Barbara Frietchie tired badly and looks stale and weak.

He is a superior mudlark. Eonic, also in light, ran a fast and game race. Janice ran in the worst going and finished strongly. Articulate was poorly handled but made up a lot of ground at the end. Rosewar was outrun throughout. Glendenning tired badly after showing a rare burst of speed.

Went to post at 4:10 At post 1 minute. Start good. Won ridden out; second easily. McMeekin was much the best horse in the race, but he had a hard time of it in squeezing home first, as he tired badly in the last furlong and had to be hustled strongly. Barouche is a good filly, reveled in the mud and ran a good race. Lady of the Valley was outrun throughout.

Scratched—29497[2] Scarlet Lily, 112; (29534) Alfred Vargrave, 110; (29522) Andy Williams, 100; (29519) Waswift, 100; 29518 Locket, 95; 29520 Flora Pomona, 93.
